Description Imagine being Kevin from the Home Alone movie. Now, imagine what it would be like for you to stay at home alone. This workshop will teach middle school youth to be responsible, guiding them through procedures such as safety, emergency information, scheduling, siblings, and learning other skills on how to stay home alone. This is a family decision and has a family component to help guide their discussion.

Bring your lunch and a water bottle.

Minimum: 8; Maximum: 16
