

Education

Granger has a fast-growing public school system for elementary age students with expansion of building and modern classroom facilities in 2013.